

For all members of the Catholic Church – to respond generously in working for the growth of God’s kingdom...we pray.

For leaders in our church – to always seek to bring those placed in their care closer to God...we pray.

For government officials at the federal, state, and local levels – that their laws and lives be an inspiration to all citizens by reflecting right reason and divine revelation...we pray.

For the sick, the needy, the aged, and the lonely – to be consoled spiritually by the gifts of grace and to receive care, aid, and loving concern from relatives, friends, and neighbors...we pray.

For the unemployed – to find work and be able to provide generously for those depending on their care...we pray.

For poets, artists, musicians, and all creative people – to help all of us know and experience the grace and truth of the Kingdom of God...we pray.

For those who are unable to join us for Mass, and for those who choose not to attend – may they know the love of God in their lives...we pray.

(5pm) For this faith community – to wait patiently to hear God’s call and respond faithfully to whatever God asks...we pray.

For those who have died, especially Beverly Burch for whom this Mass is offered – may death be for them their joyful entrance into everlasting life...we pray.

(8:30) For the People of our Parish - to wait patiently to hear God’s call and respond faithfully to whatever God asks...we pray.

(10:30) For this faith community – to wait patiently to hear God’s call and respond faithfully to whatever God asks...we pray.

For those who have died, especially Mercedes Valdez and Mary Alvarez for whom this Mass is offered – may death be for them their joyful entrance into everlasting life...we pray.

(7 pm) For this faith community – to wait patiently to hear God’s call and respond faithfully to whatever God asks...we pray.

For those who have died, especially Patricia Brannon for whom this Mass is offered – may death be for them their joyful entrance into everlasting life...we pray.

